Advanced Pediatric Emergency Medicine Assembly
March 31 - April 2, 2020 | Hilton Midtown | New York, NY

The Advanced Pediatric Emergency Medicine Assembly is co-sponsored by ACEP and the American Academy of Pediatrics (AAP). Offering courses in both clinical and management topics, the Advanced Pediatric Emergency Medicine Assembly attracts emergency physicians beyond the scope of pediatric care and is the ideal place to personally connect with emergency physicians across a wide range of practice settings.

Become Involved

- Gain exclusive access to more than 400 EM professionals
- Make contacts in a targeted, hard-to-reach audience of decision makers and key purchasing influencers
- Evaluations reveal that attendees want to see a broader range of exhibitors/sponsors at this conference

Pre-conference Events
(Each event will be held on March 30)

Essentials in Pediatric Emergency Medicine
This course is a fast moving, yet comprehensive one-day course on pediatric emergency medicine where emergency physicians, nurses, pediatricians, hospitalists and family medicine physicians brush up on their knowledge of the care of children.

Pediatric Procedures Lab (one offering)
In this hands-on lab, participants will be given an opportunity to gain hands-on practice in a number of lifesaving procedures. Intraosseous line placement, umbilical vein catheters, and pediatric chest tubes to name a few. Advanced airway management techniques include needle cricothyrotomy and open surgical cricothyrotomy, along with some of the newer airway devices such as LMAs, Glidescopes and Storz airway viewers.
Lunch Product Showcase – $5,000 (two available)

This opportunity is not eligible for the Corporate Support Benefits listed on Page 6.

Luncheon Product Showcases:

- Tuesday, March 31
- Wednesday, April 1

Lunch Product Showcase Benefits:

- Prominent signage promoting your Showcase to be placed in the registration area and outside the presentation room
- Two-time use of the conference registrant mailing list (name and mailing address only) for promotional purposes – ACEP approval of the mail piece is required.
- Promotion in the conference brochure and onsite program (pending print deadline)
- Promotion on the conference website
- Promotion through ACEP’s conference mobile app
- Email promotion sent by ACEP encouraging registrants to attend your Product Showcase
- ACEP flyer promoting all Product Showcases will be included in attendees’ tote bags

ACEP offers your company the unique opportunity to conduct a Lunch Product Showcase presentation (non-CME) to educate up to 60 attendees about your company’s products or services, and allow representatives to interact with attendees. ACEP will provide the room.

It is highly recommended that the supporter provide boxed meals to attract attendees. Supporter is responsible for ordering and paying for the boxed meals, beverages, and audio/visual labor and equipment for the Product Showcase. These expenses are not included in the $5,000 fee.
